

SECTION 29

INTERPRETATION; CONFLICTS

In interpreting and applying the provisions of this Zoning Code, those provisions shall be held to be the minimum requirements for the promotion of the safety, health, convenience, comfort, prosperity and general welfare. It is not intended by this Zoning Code to interfere with, abrogate, annul or repeal any ordinance, rules or regulations previously adopted and not in conflict with any of the provisions of this Zoning Code, or which shall be adopted, relating to the use of buildings or premises, nor is it intended by this Zoning Code to interfere with or abrogate or annul any easements, covenants or other agreements between parties, except that where this Zoning Code imposes a greater restriction upon the use of buildings or premises or upon the height of buildings or requires larger open spaces than are imposed or required by such other ordinances or such easements, covenants or other agreements, the provisions of this Zoning Code shall apply and shall control.
